

Courses offered and eligibility

Undergraduate Programme

B.Sc. (Hons. With Research) / B.Sc. (Biotechnology)

Seats: 40

Duration*: 4 Year (8 Semester) (Under FYUP as per NEP 2020)

*Subject to modifications as per UGC NEP guidelines.

Eligibility: A candidate seeking admission to the B.Sc. must have passed Senior Secondary (12th / intermediate) examination with Biology/ Biological Studies/Biotechnology/Biochemistry from CBSE or any other Board recognized by JH as equivalent thereto, securing at least 50% marks or equivalent CGPA in aggregate.

Selection procedure: Selection will be made on the basis of Central Universities Common Entrance Test (CUET-2023). Candidate must appear in the CUET in the English and Biology subject.

In the event of non-availability of CUET-2023 qualified candidates selection may be done on the basis of merit of first five subjects in qualifying examination

M.Sc. – Biotechnology; M.Sc. – Biotechnology (SFS)

Duration: Two years (4 Semesters)

Seats: 60 (30 General Category + 30 SFS Category)

Eligibility: A candidate must have:

- Passed B.Sc. examination from a recognized University in Biological Sciences with a minimum of 45% marks in aggregate. The candidates having passed B.Sc. (Agriculture) or BVSc are also eligible.
- Appeared in the Entrance Test and Interview conducted by Jamia Hamdard.

Ph.D. – Biotechnology

Admission to this program is governed by the bye-laws available on the university website (www.jamiahamdard.ac.in).

Postdoctoral Research

Seats: Variable

Eligibility: Ph.D. in Biotechnology/Life Science