

HERBAL GARDEN

Jamia Hamdard has the privilege of maintaining a herbal garden within the campus which spreads on 06 acres of land with more than 200 species of important medicinal and aromatic plants. The garden is attached with the Department of Botany and its main purpose is to carry out experimental work and initiate the ex-situ conservation of rare medicinal plants through micro and vegetative propagation.

For further details, log on to:

<http://jamiahamdard.edu/wp-content/uploads/2014/08/HERBAL-GARDEN.pdf>