The resolutions of the Board of Studies are as follows:

1. The members of the BOS suggested that any update and amendments in the existing syllabus of B.A. (JMC) may be better to be discussed in a Syllabus Review Committee (SDC) to be constituted by the CMMS. The Committee will see the requirement of any addition/ deletion in the existing syllabus. As far as the internship of students is concerned, the Director, CMMS proposed that there is no need to send first year students for the internship. They may be sent for internship in 2nd and 3rd year (fourth and sixth semester respectively). Professor Kasim also suggested that if students are not able to attend internship, they may prepare a project under the supervision of Centre's faculties. It was unanimously approved by the BOS that internship should be organized in the 4th and 6th semester only for a duration of 30 days.
2. The members of the BOS unanimously approved the formation of Syllabus Review Committee to revise and restructure the syllabus of B.A. (JMC) course as per CBCS pattern of the UGC to be introduced from the next academic year 2022-23. Syllabus Review Committee has been recommended as under:
