19th June 2017

Dear Dr G N Qazi,

I am pleased to inform you that the INFLIBNET Centre has renewed subscription to e-resources subscribed under the e-Shodh Sindhu Consortium for the year 2017. The Consortium now offers differential access to more than 15,000 peer-reviewed electronic journals from 25 publishers and 5 bibliographic databases, 2 legal databases, 4 factual databases and one standards database to its member institutions. I am sure that faculty, research scholars and students from your university are making optimal usage of these e-resources for their academic and research work.

I am enclosing a list of e-resources with their URL that are accessible to your Institute. I would request you to kindly promote usage of these e-resources amongst your faculty, students and scholars. Further, please provide links to these e-resources on your Institute website to generate better awareness and accessibility of these resources to the users. The e-Shodh Sindhu Consortium has also purchased / subscribed to South Asia Archives (SAA) and World E-Book Library (WEL) on behalf of National Digital Library (NDL) and available to all consortium members.

The INFLIBNET Centre maintains a comprehensive web site (<http://ess.inflibnet.ac.in/>) for the Consortium that provides links to these e-resources, tutorials on each resource and search and browse interface for journals subscribed by the Consortium.

I am enclosing herewith usage statistics for various e-resources provided to your Institute for the year 2016 for your kind perusal. Institutes may also view the usage of e-resources for current as well as past years on InfiStats platform (<http://www.inflibnet.ac.in/infistat/>).

I would like to take this opportunity to introduce you to our new initiative called INFED, which is a single sign-on solution for access to online resources outside the campus. I invite you to join this initiative to provide off-campus access to e-resources. An introductory to the initiative and procedure for joining it is enclosed.

With warm regards

Yours sincerely

(Jagdish Arora)
