Prof. Yameen Shams, Dr. 306 West Akbar Road SUNER, Dr. Saleh Ahmad Khan (PT), Dr. Kalpana Zooni (PT) and Dr. Hameed Ahmad Siddiqui (PT) from Rehabilitation Centre & Department of Physiotherapy along with students of SUNER, Physiotherapy department and Dept. of food technology attended the camp. In total, about 60 patients of various musculoskeletal disorders and other diseases like diabetes, hypertension etc. were examined and advised accordingly. Initially the faculty members made the community members aware of the importance of health screening and how Physiotherapy and Unani medicine can be useful to them. After registration each and every patient was screened for Blood Pressure, and assisted by volunteer counsellors. Different exercises and manipulation therapy was offered to the patients suffering from different musculoskeletal disorders. Apart from consultation free Unani medicines were also provided to the patients. The representatives from Department of Food Technology advised dietary regimen to patients suffering from Metabolic disorders. They were then asked and advised to visit the Alqadisa Unani Hospital, and Rehabilitation Centre, Jamia Hamdard for the follow-up. It was a good outreach programme and community service for students of Jamia Hamdard. By the team work and holistic coordination, the health camp was a successful event.

REPORT

Women Development Cell, Jamia Hamdard organizes online lecture on Musculoskeletal Health among Women during the Digital Era

Women Development Cell, Jamia Hamdard conducted its 1st invited lecture on "Musculoskeletal Health among Women during the Digital Era" on 17th Feb 2022, at 2:15 pm to 4:15 pm. The lecture was delivered by Dr. Saima Ahmad Khan (Associate Professor, IISAR). Total 126 registrations were received from different departments of the university and more than 140 participants attended the lecture. The lecture was delivered via Google meet platform and was live streamed on YouTube as well. Dr. Khan brought awareness regarding the occupational health hazards in the working environment negatively affecting the quality of life of professionals. He provided the information related to the higher risks associated with musculoskeletal morbidity of the women. Dr. Saima focused on the role of physiotherapy in prevention and intervention of MSDs. The lecture was very interactive and the queries of the participants were answered by the speaker.

Chairperson WDC Prof. Yasmeen Shamsi also thanked all the participants and congratulated the WDC team for organizing this event. The results of the online essay competition organized by WDC in January 2022 were also announced after the lecture. The program ended by a note of thanks to the speaker and the attendees by member WDC.

A free health camp was organized by the Rehabilitation Centre and Department of Physiotherapy in collaboration with Deptt. Of Moalajat, Jamia Hamdard and RWA Nilgiri Apartments, Alaknanda on 03rd April 2022 between 7:30 am to 12 pm. Prof Dr Yasmeen Shamsi, SUMER, Dr Nishat Qudus (PT), Head, Department of Physiotherapy, Dr. Sohrab Ahmad Khan, Superintendent Rehabilitation Centre and Dr Deepak Malhotra, Deputy Superintendent, Rehabilitation Centre along with students of the Physiotherapy department screened more than 46 residents of Nilgiri Apartments, Alaknanda for various musculoskeletal ailments and provided them advise on posture correction and lifestyle modifications. Pamphlets describing pictorial representation of exercises of different regions were distributed to the patients. Initially the faculty members made the community members aware of the importance of health screening and how Physiotherapy and Unani Medicine can be useful to them. The residents underwent a registration for health camp followed by filling up of a basic Assessment Performa after which each one of them was individually assessed and advised according to their concerned chief complaint. They were then advised to visit the Rehabilitation Centre at Jamia Hamdard, where all physiotherapy services are available. It was an interesting community service activity for students of the Physiotherapy. Thus, with team work and holistic coordination, the health camp was a successful event.

Women Cell of Department of CSE, SEST, Jamia Hamdard mobilizes and empowers young women and gives their way to grow into balanced and better human beings. In our cell, we encourage female students to be self-reliant, economically independent and try to eliminate deep seated beliefs of gender bias and discrimination. Since 2018, we have set up a training ground for our students irrespective of their gender. The cell has engaged in successful implementation of multiple activities and events for achieving its objectives. In women cell, we instill positive self-esteem and confidence in female students, so that they can take the right decision in and for their lives. We also work on creating awareness among the students about the social, legal and constitutional rights of women in order to prevent the exploitation based on gender.

Women Cell is led by Dr. Sarvesha Mittal, Associate Professor, Department of CSE, SEST, who's tireless efforts have made the team reach pinnacle of success. Other team members comprise of Ms. Shabana Ghaffar, Dr. Sushila Parveen, Ms. Pooja Wajap, Ms. Ayisha Karam and Ms. Aamir Sayeda. The team comprises of 10 student coordinators.

International Women's Day March 8, 2021

Report

Jamia Hamdard celebrates International Women's Day with Delhi Police

Jamia Hamdard celebrated Women's Day with a session themed "Women security in the Digital Age" in collaboration with the Delhi Police. March 8, 2021

Jamia Hamdard celebrated Women's Day with a session themed "Women security in the Digital Age" in collaboration with the Delhi Police. The event was held on campus with both online and offline participation.

The event was celebrated to show solidarity with the global concept of gender equality and equity. The global theme of the event was 'Choose to Challenge'. The theme was selected to raise awareness about the need for alertness among individuals and that one should be responsible for their own thoughts and actions and call out gender bias and inequity. The prime objective was to make aware the Jamia Hamdard teachers, staff, and the students about cybercrimes and how one can take up as a challenge not to be a victim of cybercrime and use of ICT and social media safety.

The event was presided over by the Vice-Chancellor, Jamia Hamdard, Prof. M.A. Jafri. Compering of the function was done by Dr. Nishat Chaudhry, Assistant Proctor, Jamia Hamdard. The Chief Guest was Parvinder Singh (IPS), Additional Deputy Commissioner of Police, South District and the invited speakers were Abdulkareem Saadqiy Yasir, Assistant Commissioner of Police, Chanda Katta, IPSO, Assistant Commissioner of Police and R.K. Meena, SHO, Tigri Police Station. The Dean Students Welfare, Prof. Sarwat Nazki, welcomed the chief guest, invited speakers, and the august gathering.

R.K. Meena, SHO spoke on the topic "Citizen services on Mobile Apps. He spoke about the various apps launched by the government to offer essential police safety services to the citizens, like the address of the nearest police station and its staff. He further explained the objective of this service which aims to provide a smooth interface between the citizens and the police. His talk educated the audience about the various apps which have been made available online by the police for safety. This would be certainly useful to us today and in the future.

Abdulkareem Saadqiy Yasir in his speech spoke about "Security and Safety of Women" and urged people to be alert while in traffic and use mobile phones carefully and rationally during that time.

Chanda Katta, ACP (Women's cell) spoke about the importance of self-confidence, education, and self-development in a women's life and that a confident and educated mother can inculcate the meaning of confidence to her children. A woman should be aware of their rights and duties.

The chief guest, Parvinder Singh (IPS), spoke about cyber crimes and cyber safety. He also stated that one should never let technology domesticate themselves. We should judiciously and carefully make use of cyber technology and social media and avoid falling prey to cybercrimes.

The Presidential remark was delivered by the Vice-Chancellor, Prof. M.A. He expressed his willingness for Jamia Hamdard to celebrate International Women's Day every year. The vote of thanks was delivered by Prof. Sarwat Nazki, Chief Proctor, Jamia Hamdard.

Dear Esteemed colleagues,

Greetings for the day!

Many thanks for your great presence at one of it's kind event today in Jamia Hamdard

It was indeed heartening to see the the great women scientists namely Dr Manju Sharma,Dr Chandrima Shah Gagandeep Kang being felicitated and honored in the august presence of Shri MM Joshi ji and our most resp Chancellor Janab Syed Shahid Mahdi Sahib.Its indeed a rarity for any university administration to think differe give enough weightage to women and not only to acknowledge their accomplishments but to celebrate them.It blessing to be a part of such an organization.Blessed are we all,for being nurtured in this beautiful environ.

The event would not have been possible without the gracious support of the offices of the VC,PVC,Registrar a FO.Multitude of thanks to the offices of the Deans,HoDs and other colleagues.Profuse thanks are proferred to students who were available despite the exams being around the corner.

Support and cooperation from the computer/IT is deeply acknowledged.

Looking forward to see you on many such occasions.
