

UNIVERSITY ORDER

In continuation of University Order no. AS/Ph.D.(M)/JH-5/2010 dated 11/10/2010, the Vice-Chancellor has been pleased to approve upward revision in the incentive for high quality publications by the faculty and research scholars of the University. The revised incentive and criteria will be as follows:

1. Publication in high impact factor journals

Revised Incentive:

- i) Rs. 25,000 per paper published in a journal with impact factor 9 or above,
- ii) Rs. 10,000 per paper published in a journal with impact factor 5 or above,
- iii) Rs. 3,000 per paper published in a journal with impact factor 3 or above.

There will be no limit for claim of incentive in a year.

Criteria:

- a) Publication has to be from the original research work conducted at Jamia Hamdard.
- b) Reviews will not be considered.
- c) The Jamia Hamdard faculty/research scholars should either be the first/joint first or corresponding/co-corresponding author.
- d) The latest impact factor released by Thomson Reuters shall only be considered.
- e) Journal should be listed in Science Citation or Social Science Citation Index at the time of application.
- f) Publication(s) resulting from collaboration under MoU where corresponding/Co-corresponding author is from other Institute will not be considered for this scheme.
- g) For each paper a lead author has to be identified from Jamia Hamdard and he/she will be entitled for incentive amount. It will be construed that he/she has authority from all the authors and he/she will share the incentive amount as per the arrangement made by authors themselves. Faculty members will be encouraged to share the incentive amount in full or part with research scholar(s).

- h) Certificate of appreciation will also be issued to the first author and corresponding author. In case there are joint first and corresponding authors certificates will be issued to all first and corresponding authors.
- i) June 30 and December 31 of calendar year will be cut off date for consideration of applications.

Procedure:

A hard copy as well as soft copy of paper will be required to be submitted to the Office of Advisor (Research) by the last date as above. Papers in press without page number will not be considered.

2. Highly cited publication

Revised incentive:

- i) Rs. 2000 per paper for 25 citations and above.
- ii) Rs. 5000 per paper with 51 and above citations.

Criteria:

- a) Publication has to be from the original research work conducted at Jamia Hamdard.
- b) Reviews published in indexed journals will also be considered.
- c) The Jamia Hamdard faculty/research scholar should be the first author and also corresponding author should be from Jamia Hamdard.
- d) Citation criteria will be as per Google Scholar citation analysis.
- e) Incentive for the same paper may be considered upto the maximum of category (ii) as mentioned above. Once this incentive has been availed, the same paper will not be considered for further incentive.
- f) Incentive for citation will be applicable to papers published in 2010 onwards.

Procedure:

Citation detail will be required to be submitted to the Office of Advisor (Research) by the last date as notified along with Google Scholar Citation analysis report detailing where and when the paper has been cited. The University may verify the citation detail.

General

1. For all purposes, latest impact factor release by Thomson Reuters (JCR) and citation index of Google Scholar for Scopus or Web of Knowledge shall only be considered.
2. In case a faculty member or researcher fails to submit claim of incentive within the last date as notified, it will be considered in the next cycle.
3. No incentive shall be provided to faculty member, who have left Jamia Hamdard. However, superannuated faculty members shall be considered.
4. June 30 and December 31 of calendar year will be cut off date for consideration of the applications.

The University will confer a citation and give such incentive on the special occasions such as Founder's Day (14th September) or National Science Day (28th February).

The revised scheme will be widely publicized through the Jamia Hamdard website.

(Dr. Firdous A. Wani)
Registrar

Copy to:

1. All Deans of the Faculties
2. All Heads of the Departments
3. Finance Officer
4. Controller of Examinations
5. Director, IQAC/Advisor (Research)
6. AR (VCS)
7. System Analyst (for uploading on the JH-website)