PM to meet Meloni, other

Modi To Skip Ukraine Summit, Return Home From G7

Foreign secretary Vinay Kwatra on Wednesday only confirmed a meeting of PM Modi with his Italian counterpart and host Giorgia Meloni, as he said the list of bilateral meetings was still being finalised. A meeting with Trudeau wasn't ruled out.

"The main issue is the political space that Canada provides to anti-India elements that advocate extremism and violence. We have repeatedly conveyed our concerns to them and we expect them to take strong action," Kwatra said, briefing reporters about Modi's G7 visit.

The summit is being held in a luxury resort in the southern region of Puglia. As expected, Modi will skip the peace summit on Ukraine in Switzerland and return straight to India. India will be represented by senior officials at the summit.

Asked about the focus on Russia-Ukraine conflict, Kwatra said India has always maintained that dialogue and diplomacy is the best option. He recalled Modi's remark in Sep 2022 before Russian President Vladimir Putin that "today's era is not of war".

Kwatra spoke about the consequences of the war, including its derivative impact on food, fuel and fertiliser availability, challenges to global supply chains and disruptions in the global economy. "We have always been in the forefront to talk about not just the conflict, the need for dialogue and diplomacy but also the way the conflict is impacting the priorities and interests of developing countries," he said.

"We have always been at the forefront to offer assistance wherever we can to alleviate challenges faced by the Global South because of the conflict, also humanitarian aid to Ukraine," he added.

The foreign secretary said India would continue to share its perspective with world leaders on the sidelines of the summit and continue to emphasise and underline the importance of dialogue and diplomacy to address the situation. According to Kwatra, the G7 summit would also provide a timely opportunity to follow up on outcomes of the G20 summit held under India's presidency last year and deliberate on issues which are significant for the Global South.

This is not the first time that Mahatma Gandhi's statue was vandalised in a foreign country. Last year, in a similar incident, a statue of Gandhi was vandalised at Simon Fraser University in Canada's British Columbia province in March. ANI

Nod to 2 M3M firms to resume construction on Noida plots

DHEERAJ MISHRA
NOIDA, JUNE 12

REVOKING A month-old order, the Uttar Pradesh government has allowed two subsidiaries of real estate developer M3M India to continue construction work on two commercial plots worth Rs 1,000 crore in Noida.

On May 10, the UP government had cancelled the award of land parcel to Lavish Buildmart Private Limited and Skyline Propcon Private Limited — both M3M group companies — following complaints that the allotment was made to the company at "non-competitive rates".

Now, in a letter to Noida Authority CEO Lokesh M, Anil Kumar Sagar, Principal Secretary of UP Infrastructure and Industrial Development Department, said on Tuesday that after due consideration, a decision has been taken to revoke the cancellation order.

However, the letter did not mention why the government cancelled the allotment in the first place. CEO Lokesh M could not be contacted for comment either.

While cancelling the allot-

On May 10, the UP gov't had cancelled the award of land parcel to the two firms following complaints that the allotment was made at non-competitive rates ment in May, the department had said that "the aim of any tender is to get a competitive rate, which was not the case here".

Following the cancellation order, Yateesh Wahaal, the director of M3M India, wrote to Nand Gopal Gupta 'Nandi', Minister for Industrial Development and Export Promotion, that it was "completely contrary to the law of natural justice" that the company was not given any chance before taking the decision.

"Lavish and Skyline were not the only successful bidders (in the state) where total number of bidders were less than three. There are other land parcels which have been allotted, where the bidders were less than 3... the auction was done after following all the conditions," said Wahaal in his letter dated May 13.

Speaking on the revocation order, an M3M spokesperson said, "We welcome the decision of the UP government. We are committed to our investment in Uttar Pradesh and will ensure jobs and opportunities, along with creating a masterpiece for the state. This revocation marks a positive step towards restoring confidence among investors and developers..."

The company said that more than 1,400 customers have invested in the scheme and both the firms have together made an investment of Rs 1,500 crore, including payment to the authority.

M3M is developing a project named "M3M The Line- Retail and Pentsuites" in sector-72 and "M3M The Cullinan Avenue- An Uber-Luxury Mixed use development" in Sector-94. The 3-acre plot in sector-72 was allotted to Skyline Propcon for Rs 176.5 crore in February 2023 while another 13-acre plot was allotted to Lavish Buildmart for Rs 827.3 crore in November 2022.
